JOEL IS A LIBERAL ANTIFA SUPPORTER!!!

if only trump was aborted

Evidence indicates a left-winger mowed down antifa counter-protestors in Charlottesville, not a right-winger or white nationalist, GotNews can exclusively reveal. License plate searches of the 2010 Dodge Challenger that killed one and injured nearly 20 in Charlottesville found that the vehicle was registered to a Jerome Vangheluwe of Michigan. A Facebook crawl of his relatives reveals the car was in the possession of his son, Joel.

Well it looks like we now know more information about the car attack today at a Unite The Right rally in Charlottesville Virginia, and it looks like friendly fire as the driver/owner of the Dodge Challenger is now a known antifa/anti Trump supporter. Guess you can say the Left tried to basically use an anti Trump/Antifa terrorist to make it look like a Trump supporter did it, but all of those claiming this as a terrorist attack from a Trump supporter...Well there is this thing called the internet.

So once again Left Wing terrorism has been exposed in America, where the driver of this Dodge Challenger that ran over nearly 19 people killing one is an anti Trumper and Antifa supporter of member. So now basically lefties in America are committing terrorist attacks in America on their own people to blame it on Trump and his supporters.

Trevor Charles Black But wouldn't you like to see more Americans with jobs. Less Americans depending on our government. And the government get out of debt? We would get out of debt at one point IF we stopped paying people to sit on there ass and to actually work.

Vehicle Overview

This is Joel Vangheluwe, the son of Jerome. He has posted pictures of the Dodge Challenger claiming it as his 'new car'. He is an anti-Trump leftist. Why would a leftist drive their car into an antifa rally?

if only trump was aborted

Verstak bekken

Why would a leftist millennial attempt to kill antifa protesters? The most plausible theory is that he heard about the unite the right rally, saw a bunch of white people with flags, and assumed they were the "evil right winged nazis" he heard about on the news, and ran over them. Another possible theory is that he attempted a false flag to make the UTR protesters look bad and cause media hysteria, which worked. Most media outlets have already claimed without fact the driver was a nazi

If he sold the car, it wouldn't have popped up with his dad's name!!

So, nice try, but next time go with actual facts!!

I know, because I worked as a court clerk that ran plates and names from the state database, which plugs into the national database!!

The feds are looking into whether James Alex Fields Jr., the suspect accused of ramming his car into a group of counter-protesters at a white nationalist rally in Charlottesville, Va., had help planning the alleged attack, a senior Justice Department official familiar with the investigation told Fox News on Sunday.

The DOJ has opened a federal civil rights hate crime investigation into Saturday's crash, which killed one person and injured 19 others. "The investigation is not limited to the driver. We will investigate whether others may have been involved in planning the attack," the official said, adding that domestic terrorism charges are possible as well.

Well it looks like the so called driver that killed one person and injured around 20 in Charlottesville, VA may not just be the only person involved in the violent attack. Remember that James Alex Fields Jr.'s name doesn't even come up on the registration of the vehicle, as the vehicle registration is registered in Michigan even though it has Ohio plates to Jerome Vangheluwe the father of a Antifa member and anti Trumper Joel Vangheluwe.

Now if you look at Joel's Facebook page, you will see a photo that claims the car as his, so since the investigation now involves more than just the person behind the wheel...It's likely Joel or Jerome Vangheluwe the owners of the car possibly brainwashed James Alex Fields to do the attack. See folks eventually you can connect the dots, and this was likely an ordered hit by the Vangheluwe family in Michigan who could of possibly brainwashed James Alex Fields into this attack as the DOJ is reporting that the driver may not be the only person involved in this horrible incident.
